NEC

Testimonial

The First Customer to own NEC's latest Water-Cooled PC in Asia Pacific!

"This is the best PC that I've ever owned. It has been a great experience working on this system - the performance and sound, and even the design is fantastic!"

>> Max Ho, NEC Water-Cooled PC user
<Secondary school student>

"NEC is an established quality brand from Japan. So investing in a high-end system from NEC makes more sense. We can be assured of the quality and the support."

>> Glen Ho, NEC Water-Cooled PC user
<College student and brother of Max>
